

SUNSHINE IN JACKSONVILLE.

THE PRAYED-FOR BEAMS STRIKE THE STRICKEN CITY AT LAST.

The Dampness Has Given the Fever Scourge a Chance to Lengthen Its Deadly Reign. Jacksonville, Fla., Sept. 19.—Sunshine, for which this poor city has been praying these three weeks, came yesterday and remains with us to-day. But its effect is not what was expected.

The strong southern sun is drawing from the sudden earth vapors, noxious and unhealthy, and yesterday and to-day will leave a terrible record in the long one of disaster. Yesterday 156 new cases of yellow fever and twenty-one deaths were reported, and from the indications at noon, to-day's list will be even greater.

Forty new cases were on the record at noon and eight deaths. Of the new cases yesterday, eighty-one were white and seventy-five colored people. To-day the proportion is about the same, and yet there are left in the city fully eight thousand blacks, while not more than one-third that number of white people remain.

People who have been suffering with the fever at Camp Perry are beginning to return, having survived their illness. They tell pitiful tales of the suffering there owing to unskilful nursing and bad attendance. They say the food given to fever patients was very bad, being poorly and hastily prepared and served in a shabby and sloped style.

Dr. Posey, who went to Camp Perry from McClellan, is down with yellow fever contracted at McClellan.

Dr. Patton, of Mobile, who gave way to too much work in this city, is about again, and Dr. Daniels is a convalescent.

Across the river, in East Jacksonville, nearly all the white population have been affected by the fever, and now it is making ravages among the colored folk. Dr. Wye is in charge of the Government fumigating station, having turned over the hospital tent at Camp Perry to Dr. Faget, of New Orleans.

Acting Secretary Sollee, of the Board of Health, is down with fever, and Mr. Howard, one of Harry Miner's men, has taken his place. The regular Secretary, Mr. McDonald, is recovering.

There are four new cases at McClellan and four at Glen Mary, while Fernandez reports a clean bill of health.

AT THE ANTI-POVERTY FAIR.

Police Have Stopped the Music Again, but There are Organmen and Road-sellers.

The Anti-Poverty Society is feeling sore over the continued attention of the Police Department. If they can't have music at the fair it will be as lively as a Quaker funeral. So they are humping themselves to see what can be done, and Dr. Coughlin has on the warpath this morning with gore in his eye and a wad of bills in his pocket.

This morning Wallace Ross, with a skin like an Indian's, from open-air exercise, was pulling himself around the big Garden on a road-seller, and Johnnie Lagan, the English champion, was his running mate. The road-seller, who tried to work by the arms, and is something of a novelty. It has a sliding seat, and the steering is done by turning a small front wheel with the feet. He pulled an easy stroke, and seemed in fine form.

Boss and the other are the advance guard of the contingent of organmen who will race against time in a six days' tourney to open at the Garden, and their practice sculling will make a not insignificant attraction at times during the fair.

ACTOR WHITFIELD IN AN ASYLUM.

Declared Insane by the Bellevue Physicians and Sent to Ward's Island.

John G. Whitfield, the actor and humorist, was removed from Bellevue Hospital to the City Asylum for the Insane on Ward's Island this morning.

The actor disappeared from his home, 1197 Third avenue, last Wednesday, and his wife notified the East Sixty-seventh street police. He was found wandering on Lexington avenue at 4 o'clock in the morning, and he was taken home, but became so violent that he had to be taken to Bellevue.

Mrs. Whitfield asked to have her husband's mental condition inquired into, and yesterday the physicians pronounced him insane. Mr. Whitfield is a member of the Actors' Fund.

YOUNG BENNETT ON THE WARPATH.

He Resents a Public Accusation That He Assaulted His Father.

According to young Augustus Bennett, the mystery surrounding the midnight assault on his father at his home on Forest street, Jersey City, last week is to be cleared up. The young man, backed by his father, has decided to institute a libel suit against the Evening Journal of Jersey City, and has placed the matter in the hands of a lawyer with instructions to proceed rigorously with a suit as soon as possible.

The facts and incidents of the mystery will make an interesting court case, and the suit is likely to be a notable one. The aged broker is resting quietly, with nothing but his advanced age to endanger his recovery. The search of the sewers for traces of the missing watch still continues, but no new clues of any kind have appeared.

SERIOUS, IF NOT FATAL.

The Wounds Inflicted on the Fireman Lee by Porter Taylor, of the Elmer.

Patrick Lee, aged twenty-six, a fireman on the steamship Elmer, now lying at pier 36, North River, had a dispute this morning with Francis Taylor, a colored porter on the same vessel.

The dispute ended in a fight, during which Lee was stabbed in the head and face. After the cutting Taylor fled, and the police are now searching for him. Lee was taken to St. Vincent's Hospital, where his wounds were found to be serious, if not fatal.

Warnings for Sleepers.

John Kelly, of a flagrant street, was noticed scolding through North street with a pair of shoes in his hands. Policeman Larkin, suspecting something wrong, arrested him. It was then learned that George McKenna, of Sanford, Conn., while asleep in Paradise Park, had been robbed of $20 in money, a paper of tobacco, a handkerchief and the pair of shoes found in Kelly's possession. The handkerchief and tobacco were also found upon Kelly, so that the prisoner was held in $1,000 bail for trial.

While George Fisher was indulging in a snooze on a truck in the New York City Police station, he was awakened by a knock on the door. He opened the door and found a man with a knife in his hand. The man was arrested and the police are now searching for the man who was seen with the knife.

The Wrong Man Cleared.

Policeman Van Rant, of the steamboat squad, while assisting a Battery Park policeman to take a disorderly prisoner to the New street station-house last night, had his left hand badly bruised by a blow from the park policeman's club.

ARCHBISHOP CORRIGAN'S JUBILEE.

It Will Be Celebrated in the Big Cathedral To-Morrow Morning.

Archbishop Corrigan will celebrate his silver jubilee, or twenty-fifth anniversary of his elevation to the priesthood to-morrow.

At 10.30 Pontifical Mass will be celebrated in the Cathedral. The Archbishop will be assisted by: Dean Egan, of St. Joseph's Church, Tarrytown, and Fr. John Edwards, of the Immaculate Conception Church in this city, will be deacons of honor; Fr. T. J. McCloskey, of the Cathedral, will be deacon in the mass, and Father M. J. Mulhern, also of the Cathedral, will be the sub-deacon. The sub-deacon of the Cross will be Father J. H. Mahon, of the Cathedral. The three masters of ceremonies will be Dr. C. E. McDonnell, Father J. W. Kelly and W. J. Daly.

Two addresses will be made immediately after the mass. One in the name of the diocesan clergy, by Dr. A. J. Donnelly, Vicar General, of St. Michael's Parish, and the other in the name of the laity, by William Hildreth Field, President of the Catholic Club.

At the close of the addresses the Gregorian Chorus will be sung by the two choirs alternately, under William F. Fisher's direction. The usual church choir will be more than doubled on this occasion.

In the afternoon a number of addresses will be presented to His Grace at the archiepiscopal residence, 452 Madison avenue. The Archbishop's Young Men's Societies, the Catholic Historical Society, the Christian Brothers, the students of St. John's College, Fordham, and many other bodies will tender their congratulations to the Archbishop on this glorious twenty-fifth anniversary of his priesthood.

The Archbishop will entertain the priests of the diocese at dinner in the Catholic Club. At 6 o'clock a reception will be held in the archiepiscopal residence for the many guests who will be present for this jubilee.

Archbishop Corrigan was ordained in Rome Sept. 19, 1863, after completing his theological course at the American College. His alma mater has not forgotten her distinguished alumnus on this occasion, but sent felicitations.

BEFORE UNION AND HEWITT.

A Dozen Tammany Leaders Say They Would Present Their Resignations.

The leaders of the County Democracy say that the Mayorality and union question was not considered at last night's caucus at the New Amsterdam Club of the Committee of Twenty-five. They aver that the meeting was to arrange for to-morrow evening's ratification at Cooper Institute.

There is no doubt, however, that at that caucus the County Democracy leaders interchanged opinions about the coming local battle. The leaders who believe in sticking through thick and thin to their organization, and who think that the only solution for the machine is in the renomination of Mayor Hewitt are in favor of accepting Tammany Hall's defiance.

Others, however, several prominent County Democracy leaders who say that they will bolt the organization if Mayor Hewitt is renominated, they say that they cannot hold their followers together in support of Mayor Hewitt.

When the time comes there is every chance of a lively time among the County Democracy leaders. The Tammany Hall leaders are not saying very much. In the language of "Brer Rabbit" they are "laying low."

An Evening World reporter has interviewed more than a dozen of the district leaders of Tammany Hall. Not one of them desired his name quoted, but every one of them said that he would resign from Tammany Hall before supporting Hewitt as a union candidate for re-election.

They know that such an emergency will not arise and that they are safe in making such remarks.

B. J. Theatre Sale Adjourned.

The sale of the Bijou Theatre property, which was advertised to take place at the Real Estate Exchange this morning, has been adjourned until Oct. 5. It is said that the property has already been sold to the Sire brothers and that the adjournment from time to time has been made as a mere matter of form to enable the purchasers to search the title.

The amount that is said to have been realized on the property is $400,000.

Jersey City Settles.

The annual reunion of the seventh New Jersey Veterans is being held at Cooper's Hall this afternoon. The veterans will be addressed by Mayor Cleveland and many other notable citizens.

Henry Jacard, an imbecile, was found sick, cold and weeping bitterly at 4 o'clock this morning, near the home of his father, Jules Jacard, a French jeweler, of 118 Old Berrers Road. He was turned out of doors. Dr. Finn reported him very sick and he was sent to the hospital.

David Smith, eighty-one years of age, and one of the most prominent residents of Jersey City, died at his home, 60 Grand street, this morning, of heart trouble. He was President of the Provident Institution for Savings, the largest savings bank in Hudson County, and Treasurer of the Jersey City Gas Company.

MRS. BARBER'S EARRINGS.

They Have Gone Back to the Pawnbroker's Where They Were Found.

That pawnbroker has rights, sometimes, was clearly proven this morning in the property clerk's office, when two deliveries were made aggregating in value $1,300.

Not long ago Mrs. Elizabeth Barber missed a pair of diamond earrings, valued at $300. She put the case in the hands of Inspector Lyness and Detective Heideberg, and the diamonds were taken from the shop of William A. Glover at 172 Broadway.

When the day for trial came Mrs. Barber failed to appear and prosecute, and this morning Pawnbroker Glover, armed with a court order, appeared in Property Clerk Harland's office and received the $300 earrings from Deputy Van Norden.

Email Schilberger, a clerk in the pawnshop of Aaron Schlang, at 538 Eighth avenue, entered into a conspiracy with three young companions to rob his employer, and he stole and pawned elsewhere a lot of fine goods. His conscience pricked him, and he decided to stop the nefarious traffic and make a clean breast of it to his employer. His wicked partners, however, threatened all sorts of violence if he did so, and in consequence Schilberger was arrested. He surrendered the pawn-tickets, and Detective Vallera recovered the property, valued at $1,100.

This morning Mr. Schlang took possession of his pledged goods on a court order.

A DOCTOR IN LUCK.

He Gets a Valuable Present from the Father of Two Little Patients.

Dr. Markus Markiewicz, of the night medical staff, who recently figured in the newspapers as having saved the life of a woman who had attempted suicide, and whom he subsequently recognized as the woman who two years ago robbed him of a $250 gold watch, was visited this morning by Henry Popper, a jeweler, of 91 Essex street, who made him a present of an elegant gold watch.

In surprise, "what's this for?" asked the doctor.

"You saved the lives of my two children, who suffered from diphtheria, and I can never forget you," spoke the man. "Don't decline such a small gift from me."

The doctor accepted it.

Strling Association Hall.

The Strling Association will hold its second annual ball in the Germania Assembly rooms, Oct. 17. The association is named after a popular outside Democrat, who is on the Tammany Hall General Committee of the Tenth Assembly District.
